

Combatting bias and misrepresentation of ABA

BCBA-Ds Professor Mickey Keenan and Karola Dillenburger (also a Clinical Psychologist) have issued a very insightful response to the BPS guidelines (referenced recently in our News) drawing attention to 'omission bias' in relation to ABA and how this can have serious consequences.

Their paper, a response to the British Psychological Society's Working with Autism: Best practice Guidelines for Psychologists can be accessed here.